All products sold by LG Roofing Material are covered solely by the manufacturer's warranty. Returns require prior approval and must be made within 14 days of purchase unless otherwise approved. Materials must be unused, in original packaging, and in resalable condition with the original invoice. A 5% restocking fee per bundle or packaged unit applies to approved returns. Delivery charges, special-order items, opened materials, and products exposed to jobsite or weather conditions are non-refundable and non-returnable. Refunds are issued as account credit unless otherwise approved by management. For customers with an active account in good standing, restocking fees may be waived at management's sole discretion if materials are returned in proper condition. LG Roofing Material reserves the right to inspect and refuse any return.
